❒ January-February-March DUE on or before April 10 ❒ April-May-June DUE on or before July 10

Date of Sale _____ Assessment Rate $0.50 per head x Total number of sheep sold _____ = Assessment enclosed $ _____

"Sheep" are defined as an ovine animal, regardless of age, including rams and ewes. Each handler (first purchaser) making payment to a producer shall deduct an assessment of $0.50 per head from the sale of each live sheep sold by the producer and remit the assessment to the Oregon Sheep Commission at quarterly intervals. Assessments may be submitted monthly, but no later than the quarterly intervals. If the handler is located out-of-state and refuses to forward the assessment to the Commission, the individual producer is ultimately responsible.

Name of seller	Street address, city, state, zip	# of sheep sold	Assessment deducted

Note: All information provided by an individaul producer is considered confidential. Only aggregated information is considered public information.

A computer printout that includes the information requested above may be submitted along with a signed copy of this form indicating the correct assessment period.
